Hares: Any Time (VH) & Long Time (VH)

phuket-hhh.com

Phuket Hash has been rocked by the departing of two of our iconic hashers, Lord Louis The Lip last Monday and Two Stoke on Thursday.

GM Not Cleaver opened the day with a few respectful comments for these departed and then called in Butt Plug to take over as GM-for-the-day. Earlier Not Cleaver had asked Fungus to serve as scribe so he could observe Butt Plug. “No problem, can I sit at your little table?” No! “Can I use your chair?” No! Good start Fungus!

Butt Plug started his circle up by calling in the two virgin hares and their oversight adviser No Hope and presented Any Time and Long Time with their Virgin Hare Shirts and down-downs. Well done Any Time and Long Time for getting involved like that.

Butt Plug called in What A Cunt for a quick vote by the circle on how well he blew the horn today. Good Horn was shouted but a few got confused in the area where WAC ran with a hole in the bag. What A Cunt!

Lucky Lek in for Announmen.. which he did in a very subdued voice in respect for our departed Hashers. Wilma came in to announce the Bike Hash with helpful information that you need to have a bike, down-down. The returners were called in and there were a bunch: JB and Clitmas Pussy, Crabtree, What A Rat, Forced Entry, Chlamydia, Short Circuit, Flip Flop, Wilma, Flojo, O.J., Teasan & Kamila Sapomaniac... wow!! (not scribe's spelling)

Our virgins got a good ice-water welcome by Anal Grapes and Fungus. Welcome to the Phuket Hash and we hope to see you again.

Five visiting hashers were called in to compete for the prize of a PH3 shirt. While 4 of them were working out poems and songs, a couple quite good by the way, Fungus convinced the visiting hasher in front of him to take her shirt off, doing what he could to pretty much guarantee her the guys around him could swing the vote in her favor. It was right down to one visitor getting the prize when she took her shirt off, and won. And then Fungus asked her to please turn and change while facing the guys that had swung the vote as way of saying thanks, which she did. Isn't hashing wonderful?

In Memory of Two Departed Hashers

Not Cleaver read a very nice email that described Two Stroke in a way that had many nodding their heads. This was followed by a number of hashers coming in to relate personal tales and memories of Lord Louis the Lip and Two Stroke. St Blow Job and Blue Harlot told LTL "Louieisms" bringing fond chuckles from around the circle. Lesser Dipshit told of Louis' Niagra Tablets and Gorgeous told of LTL mistaking Rommel in the car for his own reflection in the window. Chicken George came in and Lucky Lek again then was joined by Give Me A Stroke who bravely spoke in Thai of her heartfelt appreciation for all the support of her PH3 family and Lucky Lek translated. It was a very feeling moment. Our circle moved on.

BP got Tumble Dryer and Any Cock'll Do in for new shoes. ACD claiming not new but first time running in them on a hash got him a nice double up of beer dumped inside. Don't cross the GM!!

Run Offenses opened with No Hope getting the virgin hares in to congratulate them on their efforts and hard work. With No Hope as a master hare you've got a great start. Anal Grapes got Chicken George in and put a pair of wrist supports on him because he'd been complaining about pain while wanking. (Is this Anal Grapes' answer?) JB got SADG in for cheaping out on not paying 60 B for FA Cup, so what's new? Then JB got in Poke The Payroll to attempt a name change but the circle didn't buy it. Fungus got in Manneken Pis to rule that there was no racing on the hash (MP thought it was about him and took a beer, which Fungus made him put back!!). With this Fungus called in Kentucky Fried Piles for racing on the hash. Incredible yelled many, nay said Fungus reporting that upon arrival KFP had raced to his chair. Double-down-downs and don't do it again.

Departers in, only Lucky Lek so FOYC. Winding down his GMship of the day Butt Plug got the hares in along with Runmaster MP to make the decisions for the day for the run. Something is happening with MP's voice and soon he had the circle singing different verses out of sync until it was like a bad movie. Somehow Fungus got mixed into this and ended up making the last of his scribe notes sitting on the ice while the circle decided that the run was good and Gorgeous You Wanker should continue wearing the seat. Good Run, Circle Closed.
