Hares: Swollen Colon & Swollen Bits (VH?)

phuket-hhh.com

Our GM Who The Fuck Is Alice opened the circle by calling in the hares, which already brought finger pointing between them and uncertainty to the circle as Swollen Colon pointed to Swollen Bits claiming she was a Virgin Hare while she vehemently shook her head in the negative claiming it was her second haring while SC loudly over-spoke her saying but she could get a free shirt if she agreed. None of the circle was distracted by SC's sidetracking to avert any thinking on Hash Shit being called, which wasn't too likely seeing as the trails were well laid, although a bit thorny in places. Oh, and the misdirections had quite a few errors and SC hadn't bothered to list SB on the hareline as a hare. And they were both called in for leaving their electrolyte packets and water bottles along the way. Maybe it could be hash shit!!

We had a pack of virgins today for which there was no shortage of hashers willing to toss the ol' ice water, seeing as there were some young lasses with little on their top halves to block the view. The crowd was like a pack of wolves!

Lucky Lek came in to name one of our members who's joining in on the haring for the outstation run in Koh Lanta at the end of April. Since "Pornsing" can't be named just any Sing, because one Sing means Singha and one means Sing Gold already, and since Pornsing doesn't sing, he barks, welcome to Sing Bark. [Outstation Run 2018, there's still space!]

Our Hash Quack No Hope got in one of our newer members and sat him on the ice then handed him 3 “hydration” beers as a reminder to everyone that this is the hottest time of the year and everyone needs to make sure they're hydrated before heading out on the trails so they don't end up like this very healthy chap did last week when he collapsed 100 meters before reaching the circle.

Here's a couple of suggestions: dissolve one packet of electrolyte into a 1.5 liter bottle of water and consume it within the 2 hours just before running so you start off hydrated. Carrying a bottle of water to sip along the way can go a long way to help keep you hydrated.

Keyhole was our Steward and did a grand job roasting Swollen Colon about the size of his “member” which turned out to be substantially larger than SC remembered. Mr Fister was got in being one of our resident Tourist Police Volunteers to answer why it is when a white guy gets into a punch up with a white guy the charge is Grievous Bodily Harm but if it's a black guy getting punched up the charge is for impersonating a police officer. Meanwhile Flying Dickhead replied, after asking the chemist for some Vaseline and being told he had none, then have you tried Boots?, “I wanted to slide in there, not march!”. As Fungus was called in the circle madly chanted “ice” but Keyhole kept him off then called in Oh Yeah to demonstrate with Fungus the 4 kinds of orgasm. Since it's Fungus writing these notes I can assure you I heard nothing of what Keyhole said. I can tell you that with Oh Yeah draped all over you there is a 5th kind of orgasm. Well done Keyhole and great Steward spot, welcome back anytime.

New Shoes are always a treat for the circle and today was no different. Baldylocks and Houdini were the lucky recipients of beer-filled shoes. And what do these guys do? They stood there comparing shopping for prices and selection. Then they swilled down the questionable contents. Well done guys.

And off to the right is Twice Nightly receiving the GM's special attention for her 500 Run Shirt. Well Done TN!
