

SCRIBE REPORT RUN 1723

Saturday 9th February 2019

Fungus, Butt Plug,

Gay PigFucker, Unplugged

Patong View Point

(Also called 'Not the Kalim' run')

The PreRun

Tight Fit (TF) is at it again whispering sweet nothings in my ear. This time about how he has to disappear to southern Europe for a few months and would I like to take on the role of Hash Scribe. Also how this is a wonderful opportunity for me to get to know our fellow Hashers a little better. So I agreed but only in the knowledge that it is worth a few extra free beers.

The Run and Hares

GM called the Hash to order and form a circle. The Hares were called into the circle to explain the run with Fungus reading from an extensive set of notes. There was concern that he wasn't getting confused between the two runs – more about that later. Points of note were that obstacles, hazards etc were marked with yellow and black tape and when encountering an orchard you were not expected to pick all the fruit.

(The piccie of the Hares was taken with a long range lens with Fungus in the foreground so as to give the impression he is bigger than his co-hare Unplugged)

I missed the instructions for the Shortcutters route but guess it was the same as the run but just less of it. We headed out of the Laager site in a southerly direction and after a little checking left and right on the access road we crossed over the road into the hillside plantation.

After some up and down bits the trail went down a slope to a nice boggy area which involved some queuing for a while where some got the doubtful pleasure of seeing Mighty Quim in his usual state of undress.

We followed the boggy area for a while and then it was OnUp another hillside after which we meandered along on relatively level ground and tracks allowing us to get our breath back.

There then ensued a steady climb to the top of the hill (must be the Fungus bit) accompanied by lots of heavy breathing. After reaching the top it was then a steady descent back down with much of it on made up track. As we neared the bottom there was a profusion of multi colour, blue and pink paper. There was also the presence of some of the Hares so methinks there must be some kind of Fuck Up. However the Hares after denying any sort of FU said you are about 5 minutes from the Laager but then snidely added but at the pace you are going that's more like 10 minutes. After a period of some more descent I came across a Harriet and asked how she knew we were on the right trail as there was no sign of paper – she said we don't need that – we all know exactly where we are!! And sure enough we did because in the next minute or so at high speed running (snail pace) we were back at the Laager.

The Circle

GM welcomed in the Hares Fungus, Butt Plug, Gay PigFucker and Unplugged. GPF was asked how many years he had been coming to the Phuket Hash with some vagary around whether it was 4 to 5 years or 40 to 50 years. However GM was pleased to congratulate GPF as a Virgin Hare after all this time and also to young Unplugged who was probably not even born when GPF first came on the Hash. It was at this juncture that the whole affair seemed to go to Unplugged's head who proceeded to blow the Hash Horn and sit on the ice. This ensued for a little time until GM managed to bring matters back to order by putting both of the Butts on the ice GM gave the Hares down downs for the unrun Kamala Koma Kalim run or KKK for short.

GM then started wittering about what a difficult week he has had 'calming the troops' and that the Hash does not wash it's dirty laundry in public.

Some wag shouted 'no but they do on the internet' The airing meme is for our American cousins since apparently they do not wash their laundry but air it – so be sure to give them an adequate BO margin on the Hash

GM called last week's scribe No Hope into the circle and thanked him for last week's report especially his comment about giving the GM respect and also further requests to keep dogs under control. No Hope did correct the GM that was not quite what he said regarding GM respect (A thought on the dog debacle - if a dog really really wants to come on the run then charge them a fee just like everybody else). Tight Fit as Sous Scribe and Sweaty Bollox were also called in to announce that since the Sous Scribe was going away for a few months Sweaty would stand in for him. Sweaty politely informed the assembled throng that he would not write the report every week and would be looking for volunteers. Secret Agent Dick Gobbler (SAGB) told him to fuck off. More about him later.

GM asked how many people had read the report by a show of hands – very few were raised. GM commented ‘what an illiterate bunch of warthogs’

Dog control was raised again with Campari called into the circle to either get the Black & White and the Rat dogs under order or they will get a yellow card. Campari as a result got a free beer!! GM called Lucky Lek into the circle to explain how he had managed to register last week and then disappeared. Extensive searches were made to find him but GM had it on good authority that he had been invited by fiends to go camping in Mai Khao with some girls. He was duly iced to cool his ardor.

Anouments

Murkury – glasses left in his pick up

Scrubber Iron Pussy on 13th Feb and make sure you wear your red dress as it's a St. Valentine's Day run

GoGo Trump did an update on the Out Station Run on 8-10th March confirming that 97 people have registered so far and there is accommodation for a further 20 people. Registration will close in two week's time. The theme of the run is Peeping through the Keyhole as ably modelled by GoGo and her Co Hares Too Old to Fuck and Nothing. The theme of the run is especially for Blue Harlot who apparently is very skilled at peeping through orifices.

GM advised he went to the Expat Bar last Monday and was gob smacked by how quiet it was – just like the National Library. He said there were just a few old gentlemen in there including a few Hashers crouched over tables scribbling on bits of paper

Also Butt Plug was prancing around as the Quiz Master and acting s though he was Port Talbot's answer to Bamber Gasgoine and orating like Richard Burton. Butt Plug quizzed the GM whether he was sure it was Monday as they have quiz night on Tuesday. Everybody agreed that as it was the GM it must have been Monday and that it is the Expat Bar who are confused!! GM then suggested the Hash should get a quiz team together and if they go to the Expat on a Monday night they would most likely win.

GM Joke Time

Quazimodo goes on Mastermind, and says he would like to answer questions on masturbation. Magnus says ‘You can't answer questions on Masturbation, Quasimodo responds: Well I've started so I'll finish

GM seems to have lost his hat!!

GM invited in the Registrars Mighty Quim & Invisible Man and thanked them for all their good work. GM said nobody fully appreciates what they do and they spend many hours counting the money as they are personally accountable for any losses. Let's hope they can speak dog when they are collecting their fees. Note MQ in usual state of undress. He got away with this one since it was a Tinmen towel.

Virgins, Returnees, Departers Visitors and Awards

Virgins were Linus, Janet & Elena – Linus had disappeared with his friend Top Off and only the two ladies were there to receive their induction. Fungus was on the ice at this juncture (as he was for most of the Circle) and was asked to face away from the young ladies as the water was poured over them.

There were no visitors this week and GM's view was that since we are having packs in excess of 160 who needs visitors anyway. I guess it must be down to his popularity and also you get to throw beer over him!!

New Members this week were Chris, Denise, Alexandre and Vivian. GM advised the new members that the next step in their Hash life will be to get Hash Names. They looked quite entranced as they received such wise words emanating from somewhere within the GM Returners this week were Rusty Hook, Any Cock'll Do, Vicky, Tumble Dryer, Jackkaphong and Nongnapat. GM challenged Tumble Dryer as to why she thought she was a Returner since he saw her on last week's run. She said you may think so but I was in Vietnam. I feel GM is suffering with stress and fatigue and we should all rally around him. A point for discussion in the next circle. Also just how many runs did Tumble Dryer miss to get her free beer. Not many I think!!

Awards

Bjorn to Run and Key Unt were awarded 25 Run T-Shirts – well done to them. Next stop 100 runs!!

Visiting Hashers

None this week..

Steward

GM introduced Julie Andrews into the Circle as this week's Steward. JA commenced his stint by bringing in the Hares and SADG as the resident Hash Jew. Some mention of Hitler and Nazism. Not sure what it was all about but just look at the pics from the last Kamala Koma run and you will soon see why.

Gobby was invited to sit on the ice for removing Hash property from the circle i.e. a beer cup. She kept screaming all the way through the whole process thereby confirming she is aptly named.

Little Jonny, Tootsie, Train Spotter and Mannekin Pis were called in regarding an incident that occurred at the Tinmen. Also GM was called in as witness to the incident. This group were relaxing at Shakers late into the evening when Little Jonny's parents turned up demanding to know where Little Jonny was as he was expected home. Tootsie and Train Spotter were charged with making sure that they do just that in future.

Julie called in the Hares for a second time and suggested they starting spreading out and looking for his brother Anal Vice who apparently had lost AV and this was the second time they had done this. Then came lots of shouting of 'Behind You' when Anal appeared from the crowd so all was good with the Hash again.

Julie said there was a guy called Gordon who got on the bus at Kamala who was not yet a member of the Hash but when he does become one he would like his Hash name to be Flash Gordon. (I actually though he said Flesh Gordon). Julie requested that he be given any name but this to a backdrop chorus of Gordon is a Moron. Post circle note – there is nobody registered on the run called Gordon. So not only is he trying to determine his Hash name but is probably not paying his dues either. Registrars to investigate!!! Manekin Pis was invited to take a beer on behalf of the mysterious Gordon as he had disappeared.

GM thanked Julie for a good stewardship accompanied by much applause from the Circle.

Other Stuff and Iceee's

MP gave an announcement that the Kamala people shouldn't worry about being caught for drink driving since the Kamala police had gone on strike after they heard that a promise to expect a shitload of backhanders from some Farangs had not materialised as the Farangs hadn't shown up.

SADG called GoGo Trump in regarding some mysterious music that was playing as the GM was giving instructions at the start of the run. GoGo was busy trying to find the guilty culprit when she discovered the music was coming from her back pocket.

No Hope called in Hangover, Hard On and Master Baker as a stand in for Wilma. These FRB's were totally confused by a sign telling the right way to go and instead were looking for non-existent paper. I know the feeling as I didn't see the sign either.

Nut Cleaver called in the Hares plus GM on a point of order that GM had awarded the Hares two beers for the two runs. Should they and the Hash Master therefore be considered for the Hashit as they had already been awarded a beer for the run.

GM countered by calling in NC as a trouble maker after all the efforts he had made to calm the troops.

Blue Harlot called in MP and did a joke about the arranging of a birthday party for an ex girl friend. Apparently MP offered birthday cake, balloons, staff to sing Happy Birthday etc. whereas all BH was looking for was a bouncy castle, colouring books, pencils etc.

Hard On noted that the Laager site had been changed due to the close proximity of a police check for the Kalim run – HO lives about 300 metres from the re-arranged Laager site and still ended up having to go through a police check where he got stopped and ended up paying a bribe along with King Klong and Kaiser Bill.

Jungle Balls called in No Name Yet but colloquially known as Super Lube due to T-shirt he was wearing. JB was running with SL and saying he was quite enjoying the run even though it was set by Fungus – that is unless the Hares fuck up the in-trail and sure enough they did.

King Klong was called in with sister Maggie since she had been running for some time and still did not have a Hash name – she ended up with Gorilla Klong.

GM advised that there would be a change of run start time as it is getting lighter – Fungus shouts out 'Yes, but you are getting heavier'. I think he was already on the ice at this point.

GM called in the ex GM's just to see if they would start squabbling and sure enough they did namely Jungle Balls, Mannekin Pis & SADG. Perhaps no surprises there and it was all about premature reccyng of the run and finding the in trail at the start of the run.

Runmaster

After a very torrid week of concern and issues regarding the location of the respective Laager sites and other aspects which Runmaster SADG had called into question at last week's run it is perhaps not surprising that the Hashit ended up on SADG's shoulders. I am not intimate with all the in's & out's of the concerns, comments, complaints raised with the GM about this but I cannot help but feel a little bit of sympathy for SAGB because he was a loser on this from Day 1 even though 'he got his way'. I also think there is a parallel with this situation and a certain island community in Western Europe .who are going through similar soul searching exercises at the present time. It therefore crossed my mind that as SAGB is basically persona non grata at the Hash for the foreseeable future whether we should consider sending him to meet a certain Mrs May and see if he could help her in any way. That way we could kill two birds with one stone.....

I'm sure she would overlook the Jewishness of the potential advisor but perhaps not her opposite number Mr. Corbyn

On another point as I said I will be looking for some volunteers to help with the scribing and with that inject some diversity i.e. people whose first language is not English (translation services will be provided), other genders, short cutters. The list goes on.....

On On!
