Hares: Singha & No Hope

phuket-hhh.com

What this great picture by Google Ass doesn't show is the submerged bridge end over about an 8-foot-deep hole with a current of muddy water running through it. Into which hole slammed On The Game as she fell forward and into the bridge end at waist level knocking the wind out of her just before she smacked the planks with her head then slid under the muddy water. Well, some call this the Showground, some hashers will do anything for a down down. (You can watch Google Ass' great Relive video that combines his pictures with his run trail: <https://www.relive.cc/view/gh39852618333>.)

Our Hares extraordinaire were somehow able to arrange a reprieve from the steady downpour flooding Phuket. No Hope always says the gods of fortune look down upon him and Singha and today was proof – 3 hours of sunshine then back to flooding. Well done guys.

The Runmaster called in Piss Drinker to be hash horn for the day, which earned him a number of down down beers for laying the pink too early, then too much, then the wrong direction then for not having any left for the last half of the run. This is not rocket science PD! The hares ran us through the water then into the mud to ensure we all picked up an extra 2 kg to haul along the way. The trails were great, wet, muddy, streaming water and steaming vapor. We runners were treated to a fantastic bamboo jungle that turned the air so dark it was eerie. However, to get this special treat we had to negotiate a goat trail along the edge of a ravine slick with mud that got worse for each person in line. It just doesn't get any better than that, and that's why we hash.

GM Wilma opened the circle to the delight of a bunch of local kids playing in the water, who'd certainly seen a guy in a dress before, but not with that funny hairdo.

Wilma announced that hasher Incredibly Ugly Bastard (#922) passed away this last week. ...tried to go to heaven...

Butt Plug was recognized for his outstanding job as GM last week and offered that what made the job so easy last week, and the circle so happy, was that there were NO DOGS as they were all on the Bike Hash. A cheer went up from the circle as BP suggested a Bike Hash every week. Part of what made last week so special was Unplugged coming into the circle when GM called for any last item to show us how he'd just learned to blow the horn using his nose. The circle went wild and by the time the last cars left he'd already taught Minnow. Everyone did agree that Unplugged did a better job than Gay Pig Fucker.

Urine Trouble was seen lurking behind the circle and duly called in by GM to be his whipping boy and take the down downs as needed. Lesser Dipshit came in and announced the Tinmen this next Wed, with all details on the Hareline. We had a couple virgins today that were blown away by the jungle experience that said they would be joining the Tinmen, any advice. Yeah, get some shoes and pitch the moccasins.

Run Offenses started off, and the reason this report is so short, with Fungus calling in On The Game and Jaspal – who – Jaspal – who Top Off! 2 down downs and Fungus hadn't even started. “OTG and Fungus stay right there” was the call for the next 4 or 5 run offenses as different people came in with their version that included small hands on tits, hands on small tits, footprints up On The Game's back and some other nonsense. My scribing was shot.

Oh Yeah was called in for a round of HBYC giving us some rendition of how she says hello when Mr Fister is away. Oh Yeah!

Piss Drinker was our steward calling in Wet Wet Wet for Always Wet, twice and 2 down downs. It turns out Always Wet had been drinking and speeding home only to be staring at the police as she got out of her car. Have you been drinking? No I was speeding because I have to piss.

Our virgins were iced, our returners welcomed and the departers told to fuck off.

Murkury finally got to wear the seat for Hash Shit for Tyson killing chickens, corrected to a chicken by Murkury.

Good Run, great day.
