Ban Pak Plee - Northwest of Thalang

Phuket Hashers 71, Virgins 6, Visitors 8, Visiting Hashers 2,

The Pre-Run

A nice Laager site under the trees although the approach roads were a little bumpy with our bus bottoming out a few times. Not sure if the driver will be so willing to take us in future. We also just arrived in time due to the ever increasing traffic.

So not much time for any pre chat other than Jaws commenting on my pre run piss and asking what I was so intently looking at. Something to do with my Hash name I suggested.

The Run and Hares

GM called the Hash to order and the Hares Rampant Rabbit and Murkury were called in to explain the details of the run – two weeks on the trot for Murkury. Initially only one appeared but gradually they got their act together and explained we would be running on multi-colour paper with blue for the short cut but were unable to provide a sample of the blue paper but did explain its slightly darker than the blue paper used for the run!! Next in was Runmaster Joxymoron who confirmed that this week's Horn would be Repressed One who came second in the competition last week for horning duties.

RR explained to those going on the run that you should just keep following the trail until you get to the top (bit of a give away there then as to what could be expected), go along the ridge and then continue on a downward trail and as you go down you should meet up with the walkers on their trail which you follow until a further split point where the run would continue on the multi-colour and the walk would continue on blue paper.

Mannekin Pis kindly provided the output from his Garmin (similar devices from other providers are also available) which shows the route of the run. Ignore the colours otherwise you might think the bit in blue is the walk and the rest of it is the run. Lots of running at the start until you hit the blue section which is the 'climb to the top'. Followed by a green section along the ridge and then a decent down the orange section. At the start of the ridge section Seamen Stains and I had lost contact with people ahead and had to make a decision as to which trail to take – we opted for the one that was still going up even though a very nice Thai lady was telling us it followed the other path which had no paper. We did travel up for a while and then ran out of paper – we came back down again to where the lady was and other hashers were arriving who all thought that the other trail was the way to go and as we passed the Thai lady we saw she was standing on a pile of pink paper – Oh Ye of Little Faith.

Other fun was deciding whether to go under or over the fallen tree. I was just about to go under the tree when a certain Hasher who shall remain nameless (I don't know her Hash name but had her spotted for a clear short cutting infraction previously) shouted out "No –come this way – there is a simple path around the end of the tree!! We accepted her good advice but will get her next time. .

Not much later we did come across our first batch of walkers (just as the Hares predicted) and then got to the walk/run split point – whilst I wanted to do the whole run this week I did half think about baling out but as it wasn't yet 5pm I thought I would go for it. Glad I did as it was a run down the hill where we finally joined the long On-In following the overhead line route. On the way we came across the walkers again and was very pleased to see Jessica and Flying Dickhead with both their dogs on leads.

Post Run note – If any of you are using Garmins or similar it would be great if you could post your route for either the run or the walk so we can include in the weekly report. Not many KMZ files flying about these days.

The Circle

GM welcomed in the Hares Rampant Rabbit and Murkury as well as Repressed One and thanked them for putting the effort in for this week's run/ walk and horning. However on a slightly sour note – GM announced the horn got broken– RO got iced.. GM added that the quality of the run would be decided later!!

Too Old Too Fuck again stood in for Lucky Lek to call for Annoumen

Murkury made a request to ensure the Laager is left in a clean state – last week's was left in a mess.

Also offered a big lead for anybody with a big dog

MP announced next Tinman on Wed 7th December. Details will be posted on web site.

Sweaty Bollox called anybody in who knew the luck number given in the last two scribe reports. Tumble Drier and Not Long Enough both stepped in to reveal the lucky number was 69. When asked what the number reminded them neither fell into the trap of a sexual position – SB had no choice but to award each of them a down down.although was actually hoping for a demonstration.

Two unsuspecting hashers who may or may have not been virgins were called in for a drinking ceremony for wearing new shoes. Tootsie officiated on behalf of Who the Fuck is Alice.

Visiting Hashers were Nick (Unknown) and Sally (Whizzer) from Derbyshire – these might be the shoe drinkers

Jaws called in to list the virgins of which there were five but only four came into the circle for initiation.

Returners – quite a few again.

Hash T-shirts to Bobagob for 25 Runs and Sweaty Bollox for 50 runs. Tumble Drier, Broken Egg, Bunneking Pis and Jessica all came in to help with the take it off put it on process. .

Up the Back came in as a Virgin pre-steward. Started a general call for naming all the various nationalities that are represented on the Hash. Lots of countries were named and Up the Back selected a few of them to be represented in the circle. They were all then asked to select something from a bag – seems like it was a return ticket home or whatever since these were all of the countries that had been knocked out of the World Cup!

Dr Fucking Jekyll was next up as the real Steward. Unfortunately I could not catch all that he said since the circle was more of an extended oval and I was located at the furthest point from DFJ's orations. Plus it was getting dark and the cicadas were in full flow plus noisy bastards Egg Shagger and Asterix talking too much – they ended up on the ice. Anyway I know DFJ was explaining how Covid resulted in him being in UK over the winter and eventually got stuck there for two years – this led to two jokes about China men and how a magical lake in Lourdes brought a wheel chair back to life. There was also a mention of who clears up dog shit left by guide dogs. Apart from the acoustics it was a good spot by DFJ who got a well deserved down down for his efforts.

Run Offences etc

There were lots of run offences called around the subject of the fallen tree:

Ramapant Rabbit called in all those who went round the tree. About 12 owned up and got a beer for their honesty. I suspect there were a lot more who should have owned up.

Wilma called in Masarap for spending too much time trying to decide if the tree was too high or too low – in the end she opted to walk round

Fungus called in Ultimate Fucking Cunt, Oy Pussy Licker and Repressed One and how you could just grab somebody by the shorts and shove them under the tree – not sure if they actually did this or were just deliberating this as an option

Wilma

Invisible Man called in two senior Hash members and Ex GM's – Wilma and Not Long Enough for not paying their dues – apparently it was due to them arriving late but when apprehended by the registrar about this unseemly omission on their part they told the registrar to Fuck Off

Mannekin Pis called in Wilma and Repressed One and something about lack of paper which was inconsiderate for those who arrive late. I don't know what was said I but would have imagined RO would have told them to both Fuck Off.

Fungus called in Jessica but unclear as to what the offence was.

Fungus called Su Su Nonna for sliding down on her bum to get over a suspect ditch at the start of the run.

Jessica called herself in to say she had been 'chicken free' for this run

Sweaty Bollox called in Jessica first to explain whilst taking his notes last week he wasn't sure what her Hash name was but somebody nearby had called her Mouthy. Having now found out her Hash name SB did wonder why she had such a nice name. It was known that it was given to her when she was little and perhaps now that she was a little older she should have a proper grown up Hash name. There ensued a big debate about this with many people involved but in the end Jessy J got to keep her name (for the time being).

Hashit - Runmaster Joxymoron invited the Hash to vote for the run and got a resounding Good Run Good Run... – Hashit still held by JC

GM declared the circle closed.

That's it for this week

Next week's report will be a digital one!!

On On!
