Paper's Back Garden - Kathu

Phuket Hashers 102, Virgins 12, Visitors 10, Visiting Hashers 10

The Pre-Run

Laager site was Paper's extended garden outside her house. Nice and green, shady and big juicy mosquitos. A big turn out with many long term hashers coming out of the woodwork and making a welcome return. Numbers also swelled by the three V's .

The Run and Hares

Hares this week were JC, Bluey, Murkury and Dr. Fucking Jekyll. Hash Horn was awarded to Train Spotter who was invited in to do a demonstration of the calls for the benefit of the Virgins and Visitors. He however fucked this up and had to repeat the whole process with the right calls.

There was a rumour going around that some of the walkers would be ferried up the hill by motorised transport – it transpired however that all of the walkers would be taken up the hill in such manner.

Mukury explained that everybody would be on multi-colour paper with the walkers basically following the same trail as the runners but would be doing only the latter part of it. He also explained that there were a couple of dogs on the trail in close proximity to each other – one was quite friendly – the other was not, so had to be avoided. The trail therefore did a slight detour to avoid him.

Runners and walkers were then told to assemble into two groups so that Hares could see how many would actually need ferrying. Runners got a bit restless at this point and were keen to make the assault and were eventually released to start the run. As per usual it was up the steep concrete road which had everybody reduced to walking in a short space of time. This was followed by a short downhill reprieve before making the real assault on a mix of concrete road and earth tracks all the way to somewhere near the top of the hill. At this juncture the main pack were somewhere in the distance and the horn if any was not to be heard. We lost paper for a while but managed to find it again and did a little more up and downing till we came to a point where we could see some runners on a concrete road below us. However there was no paper going that way so started to look to the left of us and picked up the trail. We gradually came to a point where we met the concrete road higher up and were pleased to see all the SCB's including Fungus coming up to join us. We followed the road for a while and then found the trail going off to the left and back up the hill again.

So on we went walking/running/climbing through knee high grass with multi-colour paper just barely visible until we got onto a rubber planters trail which was rather narrow and with a big drop to your right. Following this trail went on for some considerable time and everybody started to get excited because it did seem we might actually be making some sort of descent. However this didn't last long and we found ourselves going up again and to our surprise suddenly popped out onto another concrete road. This we followed downhill for a while following paper and thought this was going to be it all the way back to the Laager site – but no, we deviated off to the right down a dirt path/steps and eventually came to the first proverbial dog who seemed pleased to see us – we went past him (her) and got to the next so called ferocious dog – did the detour around him – but he seemed totally oblivious to us. Probably got bored with all the Hashers who had passed before and perhaps had eaten a couple of them. We were also coming across walkers at this point who we gently pushed out of our way so we could now make the final descent into the Laager site.

The Circle

GM called in the Hares JC, Bluey, Murkury and DFJ plus Horn Train Spotter and thanked them for putting the effort in for this week's run/ walk and horning. GM noted that the run was hilly and added that he completed it in 51 minutes. No boasting there then!!

Nut Cleaver came in as Lucky Lek stand-in to do Annoumen

Ice Arse and Jiggly Jugs announced forthcoming Kamal Koma Hash on 27th December – details on the Web Site.

Joxy Moron announced the Tinmen Hair of the Dog run on 1st January – everything is in Patong. Details on the website.

Woodpecker announced they are doing Christmas Fayre including turkey sandwiches etc. Everybody welcome.

A further announcement regarding the sad news that 2 FOR1 (Horst) who completed 578 runs, 111 Tinmen runs had passed on. His last run was on 25th June, 2011. A further down-down was given in his honour. RIP 2 FOR 1. His cremation is at Wat Thai in Chalong on 25th December.

Invisible Man was called in to list the Virgins of which there were 12 recorded - only 5 made it in for the Baptism

Visiting Hashers – A total of 10 recorded - 6 from Hong Kong, 3 from Taiwan and 1 from Germany

Returners – No mention of returners but there were many.

Hash Naming - Toby will now be known as Anal Blader

Nut Cleaver came in for Steward Spot No.1. Called in the Hares who have a total age of 289 years and very high Haring rate and for all of this their runs are still shit. Not sure about GM's hair cut but led a vote on his GM'ing so far – unanimous cheers for good performance so far. Told his wife Pole Position how wonderful she is, how much he loved her and gave her a down down for her Christmas present . Brought in Su Su Nonna and What Da Ya Mean and thanked them for not having their Island Christmas Party this year just because they had friends over from Hong Kong. Finale with the plastic pipes drinking game.

Jaws performed Steward Spot No. 2 with a musical bent. Those with a male genitalia related hash name were called in so he could sing a song about playing with his knob, willy, cock etc. Tinmen called in to sing the 12 days of Christmas – struggled to get past 5 days!!. Little Jonnie finale joke about his pet termite Clint Eatwood.

Run Offences etc

Many run offences led by JC, Nut Cleaver, DFJ, Fungus, Jiggly Jugs, Key Hole, Sick Fucker, Invisible Man, Murkury, Soi Dog, Visiting Hasher. Offenders were Fungus, Invisible Man, JC, Jaws, Bluey, Nut Cleaver, Minja Turtle, Visiting Hasher and The Hares. Offences ranged from failure to move food truck, disrespectful language (haha), name calling, being tight, defrauding Hash Funds, one too many birthdays, standing still, front runner positioning, three king naming, singing Jingle Balls (Bells), not drinking, blowing something, Hippopotamus poem – and on and on and on ... I didn't get the visiting hasher's name but based on being a lady (the jury's out on that one) and her general demeanor I would guess she was Noisy Bush. Certainly made Jaws blush.

Hashit - Joxy Moron led proceedings for the Hashit. Good idea for bussing the walkers up the hill. General consensus was that it was a Good Run and everybody agreed. Tootsie remains the current Hashit Holder.

GM declared the circle closed.

Jiggly Jugs then did a naming after time – I missed the details – will report next week.

On On!
