Today we had yet another great location with superb views of the dam and surrounding countryside, we also had good weather, so we were all set for a fine afternoon of hashing.

The run was an interesting undulating trail with multi-coloured paper with a short-cut for the walkers marked by blue paper in order to avoid the very steep parts. No-one got lost apart from Up The Back who took a bit of a detour before wandering in a while behind the pack. Achmed The Saviour led the Front Running Bastards to be first back.

The circle began in the usual way of calling in the hares followed by a citation of the run offences which included Top Off for wearing loud shorts; he spilled his beer whilst in the circle so the punishment for this blatant beer abuse was the downing of a second beer.

Shit Shag was called in for wearing new shoes and punished in the traditional way and Jessica was reprimanded for smoking in the circle and was given a beer to down, which is not really a punishment, but rules is rules.

Soi Dog called in Campari for wearing the same shirt every week, which he said was because it was comfortable, someone then added that it was because he's a Cheap Charlie and was saving money on his laundry bill.

Returners were Porn Shop, Repressed One, Good Ride, Sperm Bank and Erector, the leavers were Root and Root Canal.

The three virgins were welcomed in the usual manner, including an introduction to iced water.

Clare and David were called in to discuss suitable names for them, they were asked what they liked, it was suggested to Clare that she liked big cocks and vodka, to which she replied that she preferred massive cocks. David was a sub-mariner so he was named Sub Standard and Clare was named Semen Stains. Leera and Jake were next, Leera had taken a liking to a cat whose hair was falling out so she was named Bald Pussy. Jake's name is still under consideration, I mentioned that a pubic wig is called a merkin, see <https://www.wikihow.com/Attach-a-Merkin> so the name Merkin Muncher was proposed and will be discussed at the next hash. The rationale is that if Bald Pussy lives up to her new name and wears a merkin while Jake is going down on her, he can munch on that for a while before removing it and carrying on munching on her bald pussy. A viewing and tasting will be conducted by the committee next week to see if Bald Pussy is living up to her name; this is one of the benefits of being a committee member, so if you're asked to become a committee member at the next AGPU, bear in mind that the benefits can be significant.

The numbers today were slightly depleted because of Fruit Loops' funeral but we still had a good turn-out, and as a mark of respect, Butt Plug; our resplendent GM, called 40 baht beer for the duration of the circle which went down well, and put big dent into the beer stock and resulted in a few wobbly hashers at the end of the evening, which of course is the best way to leave any hash.

Today's run had an 85% satisfaction rate, according to a survey conducted by our Run Master; Joxymoron, the satisfaction rate would probably have been higher if he'd asked everyone before getting inebriated, so the beer-adjusted satisfaction rate was, in real terms, 95%.

Next week is Ejaculator's 80th birthday, make an effort to come along if you can, it should be fun.

On-on.
