Hares: Campari & La Lasagna

phuket-hhh.com

The Deception Started With The Lager

As nice as this looks PH3 evolved into not using this site because of the incessant thru-traffic and also that this particular spot along the ridge is home to a massive congregation of cicadas, of the type that overrides and out-screams any conversation near them, that is until Manneken Pis did his steward spot, following which GM Not Long Enough noted to the circle that the cicadas had stopped. As to the thru-traffic a point was made that with 10 interruptions Hash Shit was automatically awarded—9 having already occurred. Using the cover of darkness MP then ran his motorbike through the circle a couple times. Hash Shit it was.

The confusion the hares added to their trails was attributed to Campari trying to read Prince Charles Lookalike Fucking Tosser's 3 pages of instructions in reverse. Always bragging he gets his trails in the first attempt Campari was iced for having had 12 goes before getting it almost right. Apparently one attempt also got his truck stuck over a bank and needed La Lasagna to get it unstuck. Driving instructor he is not!! We had 8-10 returners and one departer, Top Off, who said he wasn't leaving, but we said he was!

We had 2 virgins today, a nice couple, but only the husband would come in so Invisible Man & Fungus had him drink her beers to—and get double the ice water. Welcome, ha! Later Fungus got in La Lassagna for ratting out a visitor who was ratting out 2 guys that were virgins hiding from the ice water. As it turns out, the visitor, on her 3rd hash, had misunderstood and these guys were not virgins. Fungus put her on the ice for her down-down then added the 2 non virgins for company. Welcome to the ice for ratting out others.

Run Offenses were interrupted by Gorgeous coming in to scream at Invisible Man for touching Dirty Dozen after calling her into the circle to wish her Happy Birthday. IM was properly iced. Later, IM was seen touching someone else and the vicious circle chanted for ice—and he was iced again. Gorgeous, being senior and selectively senile then came into the circle to hug the young woman who'd been iced earlier. Wiley Old Fox that man is. Invisible Man is learning. Jaws and a visitor were brought in. Apparently the visitor was heard pondering out loud just how big Jaws might be if he didn't exercise. Looked at another way Jaws provides shade in sunny laagers.
