The Laager site was in a quiet spot next to an elephant camp in the north of Ko Sire. No through traffic this week in the circle!

Hares quickly explained the walk/run. We were warned to watch out for a giant monitor lizard and snakes along the way!

The walkers and runners set off in the same direction up the track but split up further along. The walk was fairly gentle and short with some jungle, mangroves and rocky shoreline. Apparently, the run was about 5.7km with some steep, roped inclines/descents.

Rusty Hook,
this week's hash horn.

The circle was opened by the new GM, The Invisible Man. He swapped his trademark pork pie hat for the more traditional GM's top hat.

Not Long Enough asked for volunteers for the hare line. Captain needs a co-hare and there was a promise of a free luxury yacht trip with him once it returns from America!

🎵 Happy Birthday You C*s to Jessica,
Mother Trucker and Open Plug

2023 AGPU t-shirts.
THE BUTT PLUG IS OUT!

Rain stopped play for about 10 minutes: some put umbrellas up or raincoats on, whilst the "pussy hashers" bugged off in their cars! (to quote Not Long Enough).

There was only 1 virgin hasher to get 'the treatment' as the other 6 or 7 (professional lady footballers) ran away when the rain started.

Fk off you cs ... and don't come baaack!

GM invited new/existing committee members up:
 Butt Plug Religious Advisor
 Not Long Enough Run Master
 Substandard and Seaman Stains Impedimentors
 Lucky Lek Public Relations
 Takes It All In Scribe
 Fungus Hash Quack
 Jaws Registration

Congratulations to 'Jim Thompson Cunt', the latest hasher to be named!

The Steward's spot, led by Naa Hee Man.

Run offences:

Masarap - Campari's dog spent 20 minutes on the beach playing with the crabs.

Campari - Jessica wanted to know "which bitch?" he was talking about.

Fungus and Lucky Lek – spotted by Butt Plug, laying paper on motorbikes!

Rusty Hook – for not protecting Lucky Lek (I think that's what he said!)

Lucky Lek – nominated by Fungus for not being around to deal with an angry local guy.

 Hash shit was given to the Hares, following a few choice verses of the "Hares' Song"
