The Pre-Run

This week's Laager site was again quite a narrow affair and with a nice view of a very steep rock strewn track which was clearly the out trail of the run.

The Run and Hares

Hare this week was a solitary Not Long Enough who promised a ball breaker for the run (even for the ladies if they had some). Cock Taste Good was awarded the important role of Hash Horn for talking whilst GM was deliberating. NLE explained that the walk and the run followed quite separate routes on blue and multi-colour paper respectively with a coming together for the last few hundred metres where everybody would be on multi-colour. Based on the details promised for the run I decided I would be a wimp and opted for the walk.

The following is a description kindly provided by Fungus who did have the balls to go on the run:

'Not Long Enough made it abundantly clear before going out that ALL walkers should not even consider doing the run because it was a ball buster with some highly technical areas involving things like climbing quarry high-walls with loose rock that pulled out of even looser sand and some horizontal work where slippage on the canted trail meant a fall into thorns and vines and a lot of work getting back up again. Thoughtfully spaced out over the run were several boulder-filled ravines with vines and drop-offs for us to work climbing up and climbing down. Much like on a Tinman today's runners got a great water traverse along a jungle-choked stream crossing a large upland sump at the top of the climb and just below the ridge trail and the return loop. No one gets to see this stuff because no one in their right mind would go there, which is why NLE did it. Once you know you're going to get Hash Shit the rules drop away. Really, it was great.

The down looping started with a clever triple-falsie at the top that allowed most runners to bunch up for the glide down. One long steep up and one much longer, more gentle down. Well done NLE, even Fungus was inspired.

The runners loved it but those foolish walkers who either not believing the Hare or not able to follow simple instructions were lucky even to get back. Ice Arse, NLE and several others ventured up the out and in trails to find them, eventually leading them back well after dark'.

The walk was a fairly sedate affair which was slowed down somewhat trying to find the blue paper in the buffalo field. Once found we were soon on our way through some viney, bushy areas and along dried river beds. There was the odd shout to be aware of flash floods but none were forthcoming (might have been a different matter a couple of days later). It was in these areas that I was surprised at the aggressiveness of some of walkers wanting to barge through where it was clearly only enough room for single file traffic. However once we got onto open ground and some ascents we soon put all this silliness behind us. Paper was a bit vague in some areas especially where it was in the sun and had turned white. We then joined the multi-colour and had a final pleasant walk in the jungle back to the Laager. This was not enough for some of the walkers!!

The Circle

GM started the circle by calling in the Hares and the Hash horn for a drink and thanked them for their efforts. This would be the first of many for NLE and he was put on the ice for his troubles.

Lucky Lek came in to do Annoumen duties but none were forthcoming. Eventually Su Su Nonna was forced in to reiterate details of the 1900th run on Coconut Island – details are on the web site.

Jaws and Invisible Man were called in to list the Virgins but there were none to be had this week.

Visiting Hashers – Two visiting Hashers – Not Yet and Two Snakes Fucking – both from Angeles City, Philippines

Hash Shirts - Ejackulator - 600 runs

Steward Spot - This week's Steward spot went to Fungus basically because he couldn't persuade anybody else although he did give Key Hole a scare. Lots of people called in to receive personalized jokes about them including Key Hole, Oy Pussylicker, Jaws, Invisible Man, JC, Repressed One, Trainspotter, Cock Taste Good etc. Some old and some new jokes.

One was about how many people had been hurt on a run when Fungus was a Hare - basically everybody was invited in the circle for a drink.

We also now know that Trainspotter is not a great lover of squirrels and that Cock Taste Good has a fetish for female ears.

Great Steward spot from Fungus – well received by everybody.

Well done Fungus!!

Hash Naming - Soren and Tina will in future be known as Sodomite and Spreads Easily. They had already got their names from the Kamal Koma.

Run Offences etc

Run offences this week covered such aspects as suspect paper, low expectations, misleading and/or not following the correct trail, being idiots, can't follow instructions, relying on others, dog killing, castrating anything that moves, ruining runners rhythm, Hash MP, hands lost in dark places, racing on the hash from unexpected quarters, no paper, no signs, etc. etc..

Promoters were Wilma, Fungus, Swollen Colon, Top Off, Su Su Nonna, Piss Drinker, Ice Arse, Jesica, Jungle Balls, Campari, Mannekin Pis, Invisible Man, Fungus, Jaws, Offensive ones were Jaws, King Klong, Mannekin Pis, Top Off, Not Long Enough, Ice Arse, Thai Connection, Wilma, Gobby, Flying Dickhead, Forgotten Number, GM, Substandard, Marcus, Piss Drinker, JC, Woodpecker, Ejackulator, Swollen Colon, Soi Dog, Jessica etc. etc.

Manekin Pis led the proceedings for the Hashit which were somewhat delayed since the Hashit seemed to have disappeared – the Hare was suspected in this dastardly act. Events proceeded with a virtual Hashit whatever that might bewas. However Hare NLE wanted events closed as quickly as possible so that he could lead the search party to go and find all the missing walkers. MP led the vote for Good Run/Hashit to which here was a virtually unanimous call for Hashit, Hashit etc.

GM then declared the circle closed.

On On!
