

SCRIBE REPORT RUN 1894

Saturday 28th January 2023
Fungus, Crock O' Shit, Crock's Crack,
Masarap
Karon Ridges & Drainages

Phuket Hashers 100, Virgins 10, Visitors 11, Visiting Hashers 5

The Pre-Run

This week's Laager site definitely gave a feeling of Déjà Vu of last week's run site with a steep climb from the Karon-Patong coastal road up into the surrounding hills over broken up concrete roads with our little bus always giving the impression it would run out of steam – anyway make it we did. It also made you wonder if the forthcoming run would be like last week's run – well it sure was and with added interest – read on for details. I should say at this juncture that this is the only official account/record of last week's run and if you should come across other little 'rose tinted' accounts on the Hash Facebook page they should be treated with suspicion – read on for the real truth.

The Run and Hares

Hares this week were Crock O' Shit, Crock's Crack & Masarap who are all virgin Hares led by Fungus who is definitely not a virgin or so I am told. No mention was made that Masarap had apparently gone AWOL – however no problem – the Hares had already done their duty. Instructions were minimal - basically the run was on multi-colour paper and the walkers were to wait for separate instructions I think. Agonorrea was selected as this week's Hash Horn and gave a fine demonstration of the Hash calls.

With all the preamble done the runners were told to head out in a certain direction and seek out the multi-colour. This was done and would you believe it we end up going up hill on a stony gritty track all the way up to the top and finally be greeted by a Giant Panda. We were also treated to far reaching views of Patong and Karon bay. As soon as we reached the top we were then going back down again. I think we must have encountered the walkers at the 2k plus point where progress slowed somewhat and everybody was vying for position. We eventually came into an open area where things slowed even further due to difficulty in locating the trail. Also at this point Hash Horn Agonorrea was travelling in the opposite direction trying to find his phone – we therefore had to continue without his guidance. The outward rail was eventually found and we found ourselves on our way again over a small rise into another open area where the trail required us to cross a ditch – however the width of the crossing needed some careful assessment so being the wimp that I am I held back a bit to see how others were doing. Next thing I know somebody had fallen into the ditch and disappeared from sight and could be heard landing with a thump a few milliseconds later. The casualty was thought to be Accident - how aptly named – but fortunately was extricated without too much damage to himself. Having seen what happened it definitely decided for me to seek an alternative route and I was joined by Seaman Stains and Takes It All In to cross the river /drain upstream where the banks although very rocky were easier to navigate. We also had to cross quite a large muddy area which being the gentleman I am I let the ladies go first as they were lighter than me. Takes It All In managed to get stuck in the mud but I thought no problem I can lay SS across the mud and use her as a platform to pull TIAI out – as it happened TIAI got herself out and we managed to complete the crossing without further incident. However this took some time and by the time we got back on the trail we were then going past all the people that we had overtaken previously. After some time we could also hear Hash Horn behind and I thought this could be two weeks in succession where I get back to the Laager in front of the Horn. However he managed to pass us in the last couple of hundred metres before we reached the Laager. Post Run note: Clitmas Pussy managed to sustain a twisted ankle at the ditch – Brunswick also had a 'spill' according to the unofficial scribe which potentially may have required him needing stitches to his head – not sure whether this was due to a 'ditch' issue also. Also at the time of writing Hash Horn had not found his phone.

The Circle

GM started the circle by calling in the Hares and the Hash horn for a drink and thanked them for their efforts. NLE and Wilma were asked to confirm the adequacy of pink paper spreading – not much point really – they spend the majority of the time on the run trying to outdo each other and does not necessarily mean they actually run on paper.

Lucky Lek was there in person to do Annoumen. Kamala Koma and Tinman runs this week – details on the website. Further details from Go Go Trump on the Outstation Run in May – details again are on the website.

Fungus introduced two ladies who were related to Hashes to Ashes who last ran on the Hash on Run 1687 and was a long term buddy of Fungus. Unfortunately he passed recently and they were here to spread his ashes which they had brought from the States. A little joke about baking the ashes into cookies to get them through Thai customs but one of them had got mixed up with the Hash Food. A glass was raised as a mark of respect to Hashes to Ashes.

Jaws and Invisible Man were called in to list the Virgins of which there 10 and appeared to be present for the baptism. The icy water did appear to shock some of the virgins but as per usual the majority of the water ended up going on the young lady virgins.

Visiting Hashers – Five visiting Hashers from Guangzhou, Juba, Malaysia, Chiang Mai and Bangkok. I did wonder if the lady hasher from Juba was the Juba in South Sudan – if so I imagine Hashing would be quite exciting there. I am happy to be corrected.

Hash Shirts - Doodle Bug - Black shirt – 333 runs

Steward Spot - Peanut was the Steward this week – lots of singing and jokes including a sing along to 'Lilly he Pink'. Not always able to hear everything that was said due to constant steam of motor cycles going through the Laager site. However Peanut battled on regardless of the interruptions – much credit to him in such trying circumstances. Well done Peanut!!

Run Offences etc

Lots of run offences of various types centered around talking, drunk at the hash from the night before, new shoes, falling in a ditch, tying shoe laces, false falsies, cheap eating, going in the wrong direction, constant icing for Fungus due to Circle interruptions ec.

Promoters were Wilma, GM, Fungus, Piss Drinker, Mannekin Pis, Invisible Man, Key Hole, Offensive ones were Peanut, Substandard, Wilma Top Off, Tootsie, Train Spotter, WTFIA, Accident, Any Time, Long Time, Mind The Gap, Key Hole, Dirty Dozen, Not Long Enough, Creature, JC, Mannekin Pis, Train Spotter etc. etc.

Wilma called out anybody who were wearing the same shirt as he was – this shirt had a reference to Macfuehrer who sadly passed recently and his funeral was last week – a glass was raised to Macfuehrer in respect. RIP Macfuehrer

Joxy Moron led the proceedings for the Hashit. Joxy made clear that ‘as per the rules’ virgin hares could not receive the Hashit and as such everybody gave them a ‘Good Run’ shout. However Hashit could be applied to any Hare that is not a Virgin Hare. In this regard it was noted that another Hash Rule had been broken his week – motor bikes being ridden through the circle – therefore notwithstanding the ‘Ditch Incident’ and associated mistruths there was enough evidence to award Fungus the Hashit and everybody was in full and vocal agreement.

GM called in next week’s Hares for a drink and perhaps as a reminder of what can happen to them if they don’t get things right. He then declared the circle closed.

Hot Off The Press Just seen Who the Fuck Is Alice is in hospital with three broken ribs and needing a few stitches also. Thought he might be another ‘Ditch Incident’ victim but then remembered he seemed perfectly OK when he was involved in the ‘new shoe’ ceremony at this week’s hash. I did then wonder if his accident was due to an affliction that is affecting all of the French and French speaking community at the present time who seem to be under the misunderstanding that an alcohol ban is being planned for Southern Thailand. As such this has led them to being constantly pissed, having endless parties and getting tattoos. This will be investigated further by your intrepid reporter. Hope you get better soon WTFIA and stay off the booze!!.

On On!

Sweaty Bollox

Secondary Sous Scribe

www.phuket-hhh.com