Who the Fuck is Alice, Heru, Tootsie??
Soi Suksan Song - Rawai

Phuket Hashers 85, Virgins 3, Visitors 7, Visiting Hashers 1

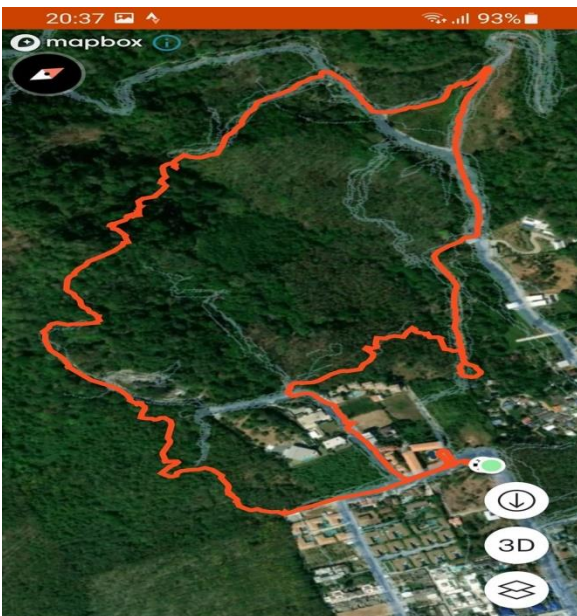

The Pre-Run

A nice Laager site especially for me as it was in walking distance from my house. However parking was a bit of an issue and there were lots of over friendly mozzies.

The Run and Hares

GM called the Hash to order and invited the Hares Who The Fuck Is Alice, Heru and Tootsie to come in and explain the details of the run, this was led by WTFIA who was resplendent in his Frenchman disguise complete with dangling Le Coq. The English language did get the better of him so son Tootsie came in to complete the explanations – runners on multi-colour paper and a short cut on blue for the walkers. GM was also pleased to report that the hash horn had been repaired and brought in Fungus and Lucky Lek to thank them for getting the horn repaired – so much so Fungus was given the honour of being Hash Horn for this week's run.

The run set off up the hill on the concrete road and it was likely to be a further ascent on concrete but not this time – we continued straight and then made the ascent in the slippy slidey jungle with the odd bit of barbed wire and trippy vines thrown in for good measure

This week's map was kindly provided by Asterix (other Hashers are available)

We continued on up the hill with Piss Drinker giving constant instructions to his off spring Mother Trucker. I thought coaching wasn't allowed on the Hash. At one point when the ascent was getting the better of me I managed to ram my oversized walking stick into Creature (from the Blue Lagoon)'s face who was clearly following too close for which I profusely apologised and allowed her to go ahead – she then immediately manages to slip and fall back into a tree – I of course helped her up and pushed her on up the hill.

We carried on ascending and came across some walkers who had clearly been let out early to play. We eventually reached another concrete road with blue paper going down the road to the right and multi-colour going on up the hill. The ascent continued and then a gradual descent to where we found Hare

Heru guarding a concrete wall and barbed wire warning us the next bit of the trail was narrow and slippy alongside a ravine with a big fall into the abyss if you got it wrong.

Managed to inch my way along with my trusty stick until we came to a gently sloping grass covered track back to the Laager – well not quite – we then had to turn left at the bottom and traverse over another hill until we joined walkers on a concrete road that did then lead down to the Laager site.

The Circle

GM welcomed in the Hares WTFIA, Heru and Tootsie as well as Fungus and thanked them for putting the effort in for this week's run/ walk and horning. GM added that the quality of the run would be decided later!!

Lucky Lek has returned to the Hash fold and came in to call for Annoumen

Wilma announced the next day Pooying Hash – has a new Laager site and area for the run.

Fungus announced next week's end of year run which will include food and cover. Access road is not good. Make sure you wear some red !!.

Tumble Dryer announced the sad news that Wankenstein had passed on. A down-down was given in his honour. RIP Wankenstein.

Invisible Man was called in to list the Virgins of which Dedrye, Ochie and Ting Tong are recorded by the Registrars. However I counted 6 in the circle receiving a dousing. One apparently had already been on the bike hash and the other was With Me Now who was a visiting hasher from Malaysia – she got another down-down for that. Not sure who the sixth virgin was!!

Returners – Load and loads including welcome return of Gorgeous.

Hash T-shirts to Mother Trucker for 50 Runs and 100 run shirts for Sweet Hole and Masarap. T-shirt support provided by Jiggly Jugs, Fungus, WTFIA & Cock Taste Good.

Fungus came in for the Steward spot. His patsies were Invisible Man for erroneously not losing his wallet, Honking Dick Head going into a Patong gym and asking what machine he should use to impress the ladies – they pointed him to the ATM in the corner, Jaws invited to give a 9 letter word for being intoxicated – he failed to identify 'shitfaced'. Piss Drinker was challenged about how difficult it is teaching his offspring about the 'Birds and Bees' in these days of gender fluidity, a few blondes doing a maths (yes, its short for mathematics) exercise and JB/CP's experiences with a robot.

Good spot by Fungus.

Run Offences etc

Many run offences led by, BC, JB, JJ, Fungus, Wilma, Piss Drinker, Lucky Lek and the GM himself. Offenders were Top Off, Asterix, Ice Arse, Too Old to Fuck, Seaman Stains, Substandard, JB, Clitmas Pussy, JJ, Invisible Man and The Hares. Offences ranged from short cutting, holding up the front runners (always allowed), bad advice, being fat, not placing rubbish in the receptacles provided, being an imposter, being high brow whilst wanking, falling off hash bus, mistakenly losing wallet, pre run activity boasting – the list goes on and on ...

Hashit -Mannekin Pis led proceedings for the Hashit. Hares were called into the circle but it was noted one was missing – namely Tootsie. Compari was invited in as his substitute and to sit on the ice (I think). MP revealed his inside information that efforts were made to inform the owners of the land for the Laager but they managed to inform the previous owner. Worse by far however was that although claimed to be 5k the run was only 3.6k which didn't meet the apparent required minimum standard of 4k set by the Hash. A vote was put up by the Hash for each Hare and it was a resounding Hashit for Tootsie.

GM declared the circle closed.

On On!
